Organisations with titles that do not identify particular industries or callings are listed alphabetically according to the first significant word, or initial, appearing in their titles. For example “The Australian Workers’ Union, New South Wales” is listed under “A”, the “National Union of Workers, New South Wales Branch” is listed under “N” and the “State Chamber of Commerce and Industry (Industrial Relations) Association” is listed under “S”.

In the first list, which shows names only, organisations are grouped according to type, i.e. industrial organisations of employees and industrial organisations of employers.

In the main list, which shows contact details, employee and employer organisations have been intermingled.
